Hjørring Veterinary Hospital

Hjørring Dyrehospital

Hjørring Veterinary Hospital is a modern veterinary hospital for small domestic animals.

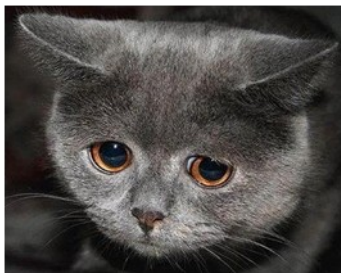

We have a staff of four veterinarians and five veterinary nurses.

We examine and treat most medical - as well as surgical cases.

Among other things we have:

- x-ray equipment
- ultrasound scanner
- laboratory equipment for blood and urine analyses
- modern anesthetics etc.

When necessary we use specialized laboratories and we refer especially demanding cases to highly specialized colleagues.
